MEMORIES OF RIK AFTER 22 YEARS

Jake LAMKINS on Jan 12, 2024

Thinking about Rik today. 22 years ago today he left us. This is a painting by him I call Psychedelicat and I'm wearing the shirt he gave me back in Jan 1973 when we returned from our month-long European trip.

Constance Grove

How lovely that you continue to honor him keeping his memory alive in you. God bless you my good neighbor.

Ellen White Davies

What a good man. 22 years!

Dorothy Johnson

Will always miss my Rik!

Rik & I thought we would grow old together....life is so fragile....there will always be enough room in my heart for Rik & Ed.

Frances Clark Edwards

Sending hugs! I am sorry but love how you have honored Rik, and Link! Percy died last month leaving me with no siblings o this earth!

Michael Demoret

I miss Rik. To me he was closest to an older brother. Hey Rik. How are you and Ronnie Reagon getting along up there?

Jake LAMKINS

I'm afraid Rik's head would have exploded if he lived to see the present era.

Dorothy Johnson

Exactly!

Ellen White Davies

Amen.

Dyann Murphy Key

This is so cool. Thanks for sharing. I had the honor of meeting Rik one time when we first moved here. He was a neat guy.

Jake LAMKINS

Actually, Rik didn't give me that shirt. We had a little celebration when we returned to Fayetteville from Europe and he upchucked on the shirt. He disgustedly threw it in the trash as he left for Hot Springs and Dorothy. I retrieved it, ran it through the wash cycle twice, and have used it for the last 51 years.

Patty Giordano Benton

Your brother was a very good artist, Jake. His shirt from the 70s fits right in to the shirts of today lol

Jake LAMKINS

He thought the painting was so bad he threw it into the trash. I rescued it and made the frame for it. I've had it 50 years or so. Here's a pic of us.
